

Cayo Coco Island

Cayo Coco is an island in central Cuba, linked to the mainland by a stone road. It's a paradise of sandy beaches, crystal-clear waters, coral reefs, and birds such as the wild flamingo and the Coco (coconut) Bird, after which the island was named. Cayo Coco is known for its luxury hotels, but also for its preservation of the natural ecosystem, keeping its virgin atmosphere isolated from the modern world.

With a samba feel

Anne Britt

Musical notation for measures 1-4. The piece is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The tempo is marked mp. The right hand features a complex chordal texture with many beamed notes, while the left hand plays a simple eighth-note bass line.

Musical notation for measures 5-8. The notation continues from the previous system, maintaining the same rhythmic and harmonic patterns.

Musical notation for measures 9-12. The right hand begins to play a more melodic line, moving away from the dense chordal texture.

Musical notation for measures 13-16. The right hand continues its melodic development, and the left hand maintains its steady eighth-note accompaniment.

Musical notation for measures 17-20. The piece concludes with a final melodic phrase in the right hand and a final bass line in the left hand.
